Prior to 2016, Members of the Board were elected each year. At the 2016 AGM the Articles of Association were changed and Trustees now retire in rotation at the end of their 3-year term and are eligible for re-election for one further term. Honorary Officers can serve for three consecutive terms. At each Annual General Meeting, one-third of the directors or the number nearest to one-third, must retire from office. Each new Board member is provided with an induction pack and is introduced to the work of the Movement by other Board members and the senior Movement staff.

The Board is responsible for the overall management and control of the charity and meets at least four times a year. The work of implementing the policies and plans agreed by the Board is carried out by the lay leaders and the staff team.

There is one Sub-Committee of the Board and Council, which is the Rabbis and Cantors Remunerations Working Party.

Pay Policy for Senior Staff

The directors consider that the board of directors, who are the Trust's trustees, and senior management are responsible for directing, controlling, running and operating the Trust on a day to day basis. All directors give of their time freely and no director received remuneration in the year. Details of directors' expenses and related party transactions are disclosed in note 12 to the accounts.

The pay of the senior staff is reviewed annually, the directors benchmark against pay levels in other similar charities.

Reserves Policy and Risk Management

The Trustees have considered the risks faced by the charity and have taken appropriate steps to address the related issues. Significant risks to income mainly arise from our dependence on fundraising from individuals and the ability of our communities to pay their Assessment Fee. Internal risks are reduced by the implementation of procedures for authorisation of all transactions and projects.

The reserves policy is set to ensure that total unrestricted funds (including designated funds) should exceed the value of tangible fixed assets by £500K. These actual free reserves at 31st December 2018 were £523K above this figure. The Trustees are of the opinion that net assets held are sufficient to meet the charity's financial obligations.

Attention has also been focussed on non-financial risks arising from fire, health and disaster recover. These risks are managed by ensuring accreditation is up to date, having robust policies and procedures in place, and regular awareness training for staff working in these operational areas.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Trustees listed on page 4 are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the Financial Statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards. (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company Law requires the Trustees to prepare Financial Statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources including the income and expenditure of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these Financial Statements the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity's Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP);
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed subject to any material departures and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on a 'going concern' basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose, with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the charitable company and which enables them to ensure that the Financial Statements comply with the Companies Act 2006.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Investment Powers and Policy

The funds of the Movement not required for immediate application shall be invested in such manner as the Board shall from time to time determine. The Treasurer maintains control over all the funds of the Movement.

There are also two other connected charities which are not under the control of the Movement for Reform Judaism. At the time when this Trustees' Report is approved, each Trustee has confirmed that;

- so far as they are aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditors are unaware, and
- they have taken all the steps that ought to have been taken as a Trustee in order to be aware of any information needed by the charitable company's auditors in connection with preparing their report and to establish that the charitable company's auditors are aware of that information.

- Continuing the intellectual and spiritual development of Reform Judaism with liturgy, publications and inspiring resources enriching our Jewish lives.
- Developing Reform Jewish communities across the country by identifying areas for growth and expansion, supporting and nurturing new communities and new kinds of communities.

Key Highlights 2018

- Reform Judaism is a community of communities, a multiplier for each congregation, creating and delivering Reform Judaism in all its diversity, underpinning growth and well-being and devolving best practice across all our communities for their and our future together.

- We are leading the way on loneliness with our Communities that Care Initiative. Our ground-breaking Combatting Loneliness and Isolation Conference brought together 100 delegates and experts from across the Jewish and professional spectrum for the first time to tackle these issues.

- The initiative has launched tea parties and telethons reaching out to our synagogue members. Communities are responding positively and have reported that these events have even helped to shape their care provision. Well-attended networking meetings are taking place with guest speakers and the sharing of inspiring practice.

- Our Re-imagining leadership initiative has seen training for over 150 leaders and the first ever community organising training for Jewish and Christian clergy. Reform Judaism has been active in embedding community organising in our congregations for the last two years; we have committed to partner synagogues on a project of their choice sponsoring a professional community organiser in those communities.

- Over 200 people attended Chagigah, our biennial weekend celebration of Reform Judaism. Chagigah means celebration and this reflects the special atmosphere of the weekend. The programming reflected a strong emphasis on responding to the needs of communities and developing leadership.

- 2018 saw the launch of a new initiative focussing on synagogue finances. 'Money for Values- Re-thinking Synagogues' Finance' is designed to help synagogues consider new models of financial stability looking at membership models, fundraising and budgeting that reflect the priorities and values of the community.

- We continue to provide crucial support in Jewish education. In 2018, 170 Cheder teachers joined our teacher training events. And our Reform Judaism in 1000 words series has provided a new generation with a great introduction to what Reform Judaism says about various topics from multiple voices providing quality readings for conversion and gateway programmes.

- Our vital work with young people with mental health challenges is unique and nationally trend setting, responding to the needs of our communities and our desire to provide a safe and inclusive environment for participants on our programmes for young people. Reform Judaism has also committed to adopting the NHS's recommended five steps to mental well-being partnering with our communities in becoming a mental well-being friendly movement.

- Our rabbinic Chaplain and Jeneration Fieldworker worked with Jewish students on campus to provide Progressive-led Shabbat dinners, social events, student training, shabbatons and residential trips abroad, and that important warm feeling of community. Their work will evolve into 'Progressive Jewish Students' in 2019 as we work more closely with Liberal Judaism to provide more vibrant, inclusive and warm progressive Jewish communities and events on campus.
- Our work with young adults beyond university continues with our Young Adults Community Organiser providing inspirational programming for young adults across the country, supporting work happening in our communities, and helping those who are not yet part of communities finds their place. Our work focuses on developing young leaders equipped with skills and knowledge, whether it's becoming a better cheder teacher or learning how to run an impactful social event at their synagogue.

- The Reform Beit Din held its biggest ever residential weekend for people considering conversion to Judaism, currently in the process of conversion or who have recently converted. This underlines our commitment to an open and inclusive Judaism, seeking out new opportunities and spaces in which to engage with people wherever they are on their Jewish journey, including those becoming Jewish, as well as people with partners who are currently not Jewish.
- Rabbi Janner-Klausner, Senior Rabbi to Reform Judaism, and our community rabbis across the country represent a strong voice for the Movement and our values in wider society. The public profile of Reform Judaism flourishes with expanding media coverage. Increasingly, the Jewish voice in broadcast media is a positive and engaging Reform voice.

The Movement for Reform Judaism Strategic Priorities and Future Plans 2019-2021

Reform Judaism continues to be responsive to daily demands and aspire for growth as a national movement, in our membership and communities. Through close relationship building, we have seen the wealth of leaders and initiatives that exist within our movement, which can complement each other to build people-focused communities. We have experienced the passion that many of our members have for different areas of their Judaism, and heard how this love can be developed.

By building regional networks, we have seen how strong Reform Judaism can be when our communities and members are all working together and we understand the need to expand this model to the whole of Reform Judaism. Our youth movement has grown and continues to develop strong Jewish identities, and we will build on this success to ensure even more of our young members share these positive experiences. Finally, we have heard the pride of our members when they see Reform Judaism fighting for social justice, and seen that we can and should be leading for change in our society.

As a result of closely listening to, and learning from, each of our communities, we have identified five areas where the 2019-2022 strategy should focus. These are:

- Co-creation with Communities

Co-creation means working together in partnership to develop communities, framing the work that we do together. This is a bespoke approach to community building that ensures sustainability, invests in future leaders, and enables communities to deepen and increase engagement. Co-creation sees relationships as a key value, prioritising the building of relationships as a way to make an impact.

- Loving Judaism

Loving Judaism fosters inspired and engaged Reform Jews using values from the Shema, “and you shall love” - “v’ahavta”. We will be further empowered in Jewish practice in our homes, daily lives, and congregations; enhancing inspirational tefillah (prayer), continually evolving music, and high quality chinuch (learning) in partnership with our clergy and communities.

- Reform Judaism as a National Movement

As a strong national movement, we need shared values and common goals. Reform Judaism, communities, and clergy will work collaboratively to develop a Reform Covenant that articulates these.

- From Youth to Adulthood

The journey of Jewish life from youth to adulthood should develop meaningful and lasting relationships, strengthening the sense of joy in community and in their Jewish identity. We will expand the range of opportunities for engagement for young people. Being led by young adults to provide together what they need to grow communities in which they will flourish

- National Leader on Social Issues

We will strive to be a national leader in issues of British society which reflect the social justice priorities of our members and in which we can have demonstrable impact. Tikkun Olam (repairing the world) is an essential part of Reform Judaism's values, to lead by example so that we can influence wider British society. This ensures Reform Judaism actualises its values and ensures we are continually relevant and inspiring to our members.

The Movement for Reform Judaism Review of Financial Position

2018 Accounts

The Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP), 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities': Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS102) (effective January 2015).

The total incoming resources amounted to £3,557k for the year. Income is decreased mainly as a result of lower donations and a lower number of participants on our events and tours.

Charitable expenditure during the year amounted to £3,512k. While expenditure decreased, the net overall impact resulted in a small deficit for the year.

2019 Budget

The 2019 budget has been set in line with the strategic objectives of the organisation.

Independent Auditors' Report

To The Trustees of

The Movement for Reform Judaism

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The Movement for Reform Judaism for the year ended 31st December 2018, which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Statement of Financial Position, the Statement of Cash Flows, and the related notes, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an Auditors' Report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's members, as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

In our opinion the financial statements:

- Give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31st December 2018 and of its surplus for the year then ended;
- Have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- Have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the United Kingdom, including the Financial Reporting Council's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independent Auditors' Report To The Trustees of The Movement for Reform Judaism (contd)

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report to you where:

- The trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or
- The trustees have not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the charitable company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Other information

The trustees are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the financial statements and our Auditors' Report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinion on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- The information given in the Trustees' Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- The Trustees' Report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Independent Auditors' Report To The Trustees of The Movement for Reform Judaism (contd)

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Trustee's Report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- Adequate accounting records have not been kept, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received from branches not visited by us; or
- The financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- Certain disclosures of trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- We have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit; or
- The trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies' regime and take advantage of the small companies' exemptions in preparing the Trustees' Report.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the Trustees' Responsibilities Statement on page X, the trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

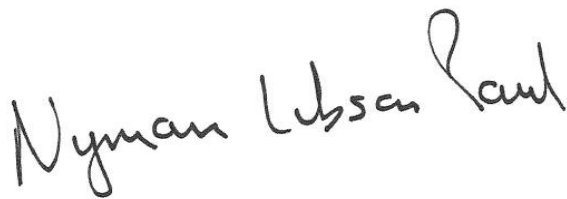

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditors' Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Independent Auditors' Report To The Trustees of The Movement for Reform Judaism (contd)

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. The description forms part of our Auditors' Report.

1. Accounting Policies and Details of Estimates

1.1 Statement of compliance

The Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006

The Movement for Reform Judaism meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy.

1.2 Company information

The Movement for Reform Judaism is a private company limited by guarantee and incorporated in England. The address of its registered office and principal place of business is The Sternberg Centre for Judaism, 80 East End Road, London, N3 2SY.

1.3 Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that have been set aside by the Trustees for particular purposes. The aim and use of each designated fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements.

Restricted funds are funds which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors or which have been raised by the charity for particular purposes. The costs of raising and administering such funds are charged against the specific fund. The aim and use of each restricted fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements.

Transfer between funds occur for a number of reasons including when funds are closed on completion of a project, when fixed assets are purchased or when Trustees decide to release funds from a designated fund.

1.4 Income

All income is recognised once the charity has entitlement to the income, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount of income receivable can be measured reliably.

Income arises from grants and donations, fundraising events, Israel tours and other activities and events. Income from donations and legacies is recognised on an actual receipts basis. Income from Investments is recognised on an actual receipts basis. Income from Charitable Activities for synagogue levy is recognised on an actual receipts basis and income for Events and Tours is recognised on a most probable basis.

1.5 Expenditure

Expenditure is charged to the Statement of Financial Activities on an accruals basis as a liability is incurred and is classified as follows:

- i. Cost of Raising Funds – this comprises all costs incurred with attracting voluntary income to finance the charitable objectives.
- ii. Charitable Expenditure – this comprises all expenditure incurred in the delivery of activities and services.
- iii. Support Costs – this comprises central costs which are allocated to the charitable activities and governance costs on a basis consistent with the use of the resources.
- iv. Governance Costs – this comprises all costs associated with meeting constitutional and statutory requirements.

1.6 Going concern

The Trustees have reviewed the circumstances of the charity, and consider that adequate resources continue to be available to fund the activities of the charity of the foreseeable future. The Trustees consider that there are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue as a going concern.

1.7 Tangible Fixed Assets and Depreciation

Building development

Improvements are for the charity's share of a major site development project that was completed in 2012. The improvements are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Furniture and equipment

Furniture and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.

Depreciation and residual values

Tangible assets are stated at cost less depreciation. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost of fixed assets, less their estimated residual value, over their expected useful lives on the following bases:

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less depreciation. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost of fixed assets, less their estimated residual value, over their expected useful lives on the following bases:

Furniture and equipment	-	20% reducing balance
Building development	-	2% straight line

1.8 Stocks

Stock is valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value on a first in first out basis.

1.9 Debtors

Trade and other debtors are recognised at the settlement amount after any trade discount offered. Prepayments are valued at the amount repaid net of any trade discounts due.

1.10 Cash at Bank and in Hand

Cash at bank and in hand includes cash and short-term highly liquid investments with a short maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition or opening of the deposit or similar account.

1.11 Creditors

Creditors are normally recognised at their settlement amount after allowing for any trade discounts due.

1.12 Judgements in applying accounting policies and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported for assets and liabilities as at the reporting date and the amounts reported for revenues and expenses during the year. However, the nature of estimation means that actual outcomes could differ from those estimates.

Accruals

The company makes an estimate of accruals at the year-end based on invoices received after the year-end and work undertaken which has not been invoiced based on quotations or estimates of amounts that may be due for payment.

Tangible assets

Tangible assets are depreciated over their useful lives taking into account residual values where appropriate. The actual lives of the assets and residual values are assessed annually and may vary depending upon a number of factors. In re-assessing the assets' lives, factors such as technological innovation, product life cycles and maintenance programmes are taken into account.

1.13 Provisions for liabilities

Provisions are made where an event has taken place that gives the charity a legal or constructive obligation that probably requires settlement by a transfer of economic benefit, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Provisions are charged as an expense to statement of financial activities in the year that the charity becomes aware of the obligation, and are measured at the best estimate at the reporting date of the expenditure required to settle the obligation, taking into account relevant risks and uncertainties.

Contingent liabilities are not recognised. They arise as a result of past events when (i) it is not probable that there will be an outflow of resources or that the amount cannot be reliably measured at the reporting date, or (ii) when the existence will be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of uncertain future events not wholly within the charity's control. Contingent liabilities are disclosed in the financial statements unless the probability of an outflow is remote.

When payments are eventually made, they are charged to the provision carried in the Statement of Financial Position.
