(A COMPANY LIMITED BY GUARANTEE)
TRUSTEES' REPORT

The trustees present their report and accounts for the year ended 31 August 2014.

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts and comply with the memorandum and Articles of Association, the Companies Act 2006 and the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities", issued in March 2005.

Structure, governance and management

The charity is a company limited by guarantee, registered at Companies House on 26 March 2008. The operation of the organisation is controlled by its Memorandum and Articles of Association which were adopted by the members on 31 March 2008.

The trustees, who are also the directors for the purpose of company law, and who served during the year were:

None of the trustees has any beneficial interest in the company. All of the trustees are members of the company. All members of the company guarantee to contribute £1 in the event of a winding up.

A Council of Management consisting of two wardens, two joint treasurers, and an honorary secretary (referred to as the Honorary Officers) and eight other persons are elected each year at the Annual General Meeting. In addition to their appointment as the Council of Management, each person elected is a director of the company and effectively then becomes a trustee of the Charity.

There are inextricable links between EAYC and Beit Shvidler Primary School. The Articles of Association require one member of the Council of Management to be a governor of the school, and a reciprocal arrangement exists for a nominated governor of BSPS to hold office as a trustee of the charity.

EAYC operates the EAYC nursery which has its own Board of Governors who are appointed annually at the nursery's annual general meeting. The transactions of the nursery are included in these accounts.

EAYC has connections with the Edgware Eruv Committee, registered charity number 1111850.

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.

General running expenses of the Synagogue have historically been covered by membership and general donations and the Council of Management see no reason why this should not continue in the future. The loan with Barclays Bank plc is secured against the freehold property. The Trustees consider that ongoing pledges and building fund commitments made by members and other well-wishers, together with future fundraising activities, will be sufficient to cover this arrangement.

Objectives and activities

The organisation exists to manage and administer the Edgware Adath Yisroel Congregation and its Synagogue, and to advance orthodox Jewish religion and orthodox Jewish religious education.

The trustees have paid due regard to guidance issued by the Charity Commission in deciding what activities the charity should undertake.

The main function has been to ensure the continued running of the Synagogue in all its facets.

EAYC runs the EAYC nursery through a separately appointed Board of Governors.

There is an active education committee who arrange learning activities at all levels for all ages.

EAYC runs a G'mach fund under the control of the Rabbi and a Baby G'mach for the hire of equipment. EAYC also collects funds on a regular basis for many other independent charities.

All the services provided by the Synagogue are available to the general public without charge.

Financial review

Donations to the building fund in 2014 were more than triple the previous year. Donations to the new Sefer Torah and other funds in the year were also significantly higher than 2013.

The general running cost of the synagogue were similar to previous years and were matched by membership fees and general donations during the year.

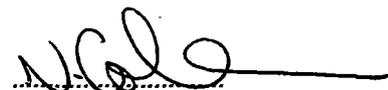

The nursery finances are planned on a self funding basis and this year made a small surplus.

It is the policy of the charity that unrestricted funds which have not been designated for a specific use should be maintained at a level equivalent to six month's normal budgeted expenditure plus a small contingency fund. The trustees consider that reserves at this level will ensure that, in the event of a significant drop in funding, they will be able to continue the company's current activities while consideration is given to ways in which additional funds may be raised. This level of reserves has been maintained throughout the year.

Auditors

A resolution proposing that Glazers be reappointed as auditors of the company will be put to the members.

On behalf of the board of trustees

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees, who are also the directors of Edgware Adath Yisroel Congregation Limited for the purpose of company law, are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the accounts in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that year.

In preparing these accounts, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and
- prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES OF EDGWARE ADATH YISROEL CONGREGATION LIMITED

We have audited the accounts of Edgware Adath Yisroel Congregation Limited for the year ended 31 August 2014 set out on pages 6 to 14. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and regulations made under section 154 of that Act. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and its trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

As explained more fully in the statement of trustees' responsibilities, the trustees, who are also the directors of Edgware Adath Yisroel Congregation Limited for the purposes of company law, are responsible for the preparation of the accounts and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view.

The trustees have elected for the accounts to be audited in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 rather than the Companies Act 2006. Accordingly we have been appointed as auditors under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and report in accordance with regulations made under section 154 of that Act.

Our responsibility is to audit and express an opinion on the accounts in accordance with applicable law and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland). Those standards require us to comply with the Auditing Practices Board's Ethical Standards for Auditors.

Scope of the audit of the accounts

An audit involves obtaining evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the accounts sufficient to give reasonable assurance that the accounts are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error. This includes an assessment of: whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity's circumstances and have been consistently applied and adequately disclosed; the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by the trustees; and the overall presentation of the accounts. In addition, we read all the financial and non-financial information in the Trustees' Annual Report to identify material inconsistencies with the audited accounts and to identify any information that is apparently materially incorrect based on, or materially inconsistent with, the knowledge acquired by us in the course of performing the audit. If we become aware of any apparent material misstatements or inconsistencies we consider the implications for our report.

Opinion on accounts

In our opinion the accounts:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 August 2014 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Charities Act 2011 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- the information given in the Trustees' Report is inconsistent in any material respect with the accounts;
or
- the charitable company has not kept adequate accounting records; or
- the accounts are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.
