

“A Tribute to Maier” Errata Pages

Page 2 – Replace the entire page with:

*In loving memory of
my father, Maier Buzinski (Majer Burzyński), a Holocaust Survivor, and of his family who perished in the Holocaust (Shoah),
including
his parents, Michael-Gawryjel Burzyński and Laja Burzyńska (née Lipnowska), his sister, Pola (Perla) Burzyńska, his aunts, uncles, and cousins, and his 6 million Jewish brethren.*

*In loving memory of
my mother, Otilia Buzinski (née Leibovici),
and of her family, all Holocaust Survivors,
including
her parents, Haim Ber and Rebecca Leibovici, and her brother and sisters.*

In honor of all those who risked or gave their lives in the fight against tyranny and in the effort to save its victims during WWII.

*For Russell Sherry,
Michael Buzinsky,
Paul, Yuval, Nika and Liam,
and Monte Jacobson.*

Page 156, Par. 2 – replace “such unsettled circumstances” with “such unsettling circumstances.”

Page 207, Par. 3 to Page 215, Par. 4 – Delete this section as it is a duplicate<sup>i</sup> – i.e., delete the paragraphs beginning with Par. 3, on Page 207 (the first instance of “One day, when Michael was out Laja sat down ... and said:”) and ending with Par. 3 on page 215, and skip to Par. 4, on page 215 (the second instance of “One day, when Michael was out Laja sat down ... and said:”).

Page 233, Par. 2 – Replace “From there they” with “From there the deportees.”

Page 269, Par. 2 – Delete “aforementioned.”

Page 306, Par. 5, and all other instances in the book – Replace “(⊗)” with “(★).”

Page 331, Par. 3 – Delete (skip) the paragraph (a duplicate of Par. 1 on page 330).

Page 343, Par. 2 – Replace “approaching the Lübeck” with “approaching the Bay of Lübeck.”

Page 492, after the chapter’s end, and before Page 493 – Insert a new Chapter:

OTILIA BUZINSKI DEPARTS THIS WORLD

One morning in August 2024, Oti and Leah were standing and chatting when suddenly Oti collapsed. Leah didn’t manage to break her fall and Oti fell face-down to the floor. Leah cried out “Mom” in shock and rushed to embrace her mother, lifting her head slightly. She witnessed her mother take one shallow breath and then turn lifeless with her blue eyes rolled back and her lips turning blue. Leah didn’t know it then but Oti suffered a cardiac arrest, her heart stopped beating and she lost consciousness – going limp in Leah’s Arms. All attempts to revive her proved unsuccessful and Oti departed this world with Leah still holding her hand. Our beloved Otilia Buzinski, our mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and the daughter of Haim and Rebecca Leibovici left this world on August 21, 2004, at 4:35 pm, she was 94 years old. Oti’s sudden death was so shocking and the sense of loss was so tangible and intense that Leah just stood there heartbroken and wholly unprepared for such a visceral human transition. The entire family experienced an immeasurable loss and they all miss her every day. Oti was the family’s center of the universe and, with her good nature, wisdom, graciousness, generosity, and unconditional love, she was their source of strength and courage, especially for her daughter. Leah escorted Oti’s body to Haifa, Israel where on August 26, 2024, at 2 pm, she was laid to rest next to her beloved husband Maier. Only a few people showed up as Israel was in a state of war with rockets falling everywhere. Although Oti did not believe in the afterlife Leah finds consolation in the belief that Oti is reunited with Maier and her family. May her memory be a blessing and may she rest in peace.

Page 495, Par. 6 – Replace “hate that live on” with “hate that lives on.”

Page 508, Par. 1 – Replace “to carry out a peaceful” with “to prevent a peaceful.”

---

<sup>i</sup> Printed twice